Discover the delicate character of Hintz Organic Acacia Honey

a wonderful natural product

From the end of May to the end of June, the Robinia ("Acacia") which grows up to 25 meters high, presents its splendid white blossoms. The honey produced from the acacia varies from watery yellow to light and clear, mild and smooth in taste and very sweet.

Our Organic acacia honey is sourced from trusted beekeepers who run ecological apiaries, also using only natural material for building the beehives. It is processed in harmony with nature and without any additives and foreign material. Therefore our honey is nothing else but good nutritional food.
